HEARDlit

About

HEARDlit is a digital literacy program that provides free, self-paced, and self-directed learning opportunities for adults. The program is designed to help users develop essential skills in reading, writing, and math, which are necessary for success in the workplace and in everyday life. HEARDlit is available on a variety of devices, including smartphones, tablets, and desktop computers, making it accessible to a wide range of users. The program is also available in multiple languages, including English, Spanish, and Vietnamese, to ensure that it is accessible to a diverse population. HEARDlit is a free program, and there are no fees or charges associated with using it. The program is supported by the U.S. Department of Education and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and it is a part of the National Digital Literacy Initiative. HEARDlit is a commitment to providing high-quality, accessible, and effective digital literacy training to all who need it.
